

TWO-YEAR-OLD NEWSLETTER

MARCH 2023

Dear Parents,

Happy Saint Patrick's Day! We will be wearing GREEN for Saint Patrick's Day on March 17! We will also be talking about the color green that week AND having some green snacks!

In honor of Dr. Seuss' birthday on Thursday March 2nd, we will celebrate with all sorts of activities and themed reading days! It is also NEA's (National Education Association) "Read Across America Day," we will be celebrating by joining Ms. Teresa in Big Room for a Read Aloud at 10am

Monday February 27th is Silly Sock Day – The Foot Book

Tuesday February 28th is Wear a Fish Shirt (or red/blue) – 1 Fish, 2 Fish. Red Fish, Blue Fish

Wednesday March 1st is Hat Day – Cat in the Hat Wear Pajamas OR Bright Colors – The Lorax

Thursday March 2nd is Wear Pajamas OR Bright Colors – The Lorax

Friday March 3rd is Wear your Favorite Animal – Mr. Brown Can Moo! Can You?

We will be getting 4 new friends this month, Cyrus, River, Harrison, and Hudson! Since most schools will probably be closed for Spring break and we have plenty of parents who are teachers, please let us know in advance if they will still be coming during that time.

We will be continuing to work on our shapes and colors this month! Our classroom curriculum is always posted on our door if you would like to see what we are learning, and feel free to ask any questions! We also have goals for all of our kids, including toilet learning, language skills, and classroom rules!

Reminders:

- We are in need of extra wipes and Kleenex for our classroom
- Snack money- $2.00
- Bring a spare jacket for outside time please!

Thanks,

Ms. Jessica
